The newly-formed Medway Youth Orchestra struck a high note with audiences during its debut performance at the St George's Centre at Chatham Maritime.

With support and guidance from The Sixteen, an international musical ensemble, about 60 sixth form students took to the stage for a concert featuring the work of Monteverdi.

The orchestra is for young musicians who are either educated in Medway, live in Medway, or have a regular musical engagement in Medway, such as a music centre or music lessons.

The new youth orchestra will be formally launched in the spring. If you are interested in applying, visit www.dynamicsmedway.co.uk
